ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION AND POSSIBLE ACTION: UPDATE TO LIBRARY STRATEGIC PLAN. The group discussed and came up with the following:

Our Vision: How we see the future/Where we are headed.We aspire to create a vibrant, informed and cohesive community. Finally, the group began working on the below goals, going off of some wording that Josh had brainstormed. Below are the examples: Strategic Goals & Objectives Lifelong learning/education: We provide public education for all that is social, interest-driven, experiential and timely so that individuals can learn, grow and make a difference in their community. Foster a culture of reading for all ages Foster financial, civic, information, health, and digital literacy Partner with educators to ensure student success Social and cultural enrichment resources* Personal enrichment placeholder LeadershipWe see the library as a catalyst for community enhancement and a key partner in efforts that enhance quality of life. Broaden community impact Increase staff engagement in the community Embrace innovation and risk-taking Advocacy Collaboration including businesses and nonprofits Community HubMead serves as a community hub that connects people and offers a safe and welcoming place to relax, socialize and pursue personal enrichment. Create safe, welcoming and vibrant spaces. Mead will reflect the diversity of our community and engage underserved audiences. Foster positive community conversations and civic engagement

These ideas will be analyzed to determine the best way of presenting the text.
